TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the future great City of the world." This line, the has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.

ST. LOUIS & SOUTHEASTERN RAILWAY,

It is possitively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

The "St. Louis & Southeastern"

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourselves and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to C. S. BARRETT, Southern Passenger Agent, Postoffice Box 242, Chattanooga Tenn., or to the undersigned.

The Evening Post.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Saturday, February 28th, 1874.

The Republican slate put up by the Democrats is so frequently smashed that the Odds-and-Ends have finally despaired of finding out who will be Republican candidates. Be tranquil, gentlemen, your anxiety will be allayed when the various conventions of the Republican party assemble. There is no difficulty in finding material for Judges, Solicitors and members of Congress in the ranks of the Republican organization, and a hint that the divisions and aspirations in your own party ought to occupy you, may not be amiss.

The Republicans will not accept a candidate of your selection, but select its strongest and most capable men, who will carry conviction on the stump, and win victory in August.

Ku-Klux Amnesty.

When the history of the past five years comes to be written, the compiler will be somewhat puzzled to reconcile the statements of contemporary publications in regard to one of the greatest conspiracies ever attempted against the rights of mankind. The Democratic press of the South has denied the existence of the ku-klux organization even when its victims were being butchered. When a law was made by which the conspirators could be tried without going before a jury of their fellows, many of them plead guilty, and many were convicted after an exhaustive trial. And finally the Legislature of a great State in which its abominable deeds were most rife, being controlled by sympathizers and members of the Order, passed a law of amnesty and oblivion for the benefit of the violators of law.

The denials of men whose hands were red with blood lawlessly shed, that the violence was the result of any combination, went far in the last election to carry this State for the party, many of the members of which were leaders in the conspiracy. Honorable gentlemen have defended the Democratic party before the people when charged with the ku-klux atrocities, and then have found themselves called upon to swallow that defence when they witnessed an amnesty act passed by that very party whose denial they had believed and concurred in. The shame and scandal of this conspiracy thus, in a measure, were attached to those who had been credulous enough to credit their party associates when the latter had wilfully misrepresented or totally denied the grand conspiracy of the ku-klux.

Nor were some of the party leaders of the Democracy alone deceived by the negation of their newspapers and the conspirators themselves. Solemn assertions of innocence were made before the people when Republicans charged the great crime home upon them, by the leaders and members of the klan itself. Attempts were made in some instances to fasten the guilt of murder upon Republicans themselves for the purpose of political effect. In a spirit of levity which the devil himself might be proud of, the deliberate murder of men which was concocted and executed by the klan, was declared to have been the act of the political friends of the dead, in order to raise a suspicion against the real butchers; or notably in one case, the villainous insinuation was made that one of their victims carried a large insurance policy on his life, by the payment of which his family would be benefitted.

This amnesty granted by the General Assembly just deceased, last but not least of the consummated villainies of the ku-klux in North Carolina, is like "the fiend's archmock." It is one which those honorable men of the State, who heretofore have supported the Democracy, will deeply ponder before their votes will again be given to that party. It is one which the rank and file of the order, who were seduced into it by designing men, will not be very thankful for, as many of them were already indicted in U. S. Courts, while the leaders, with perhaps one exception, had escaped.

A fine distinction was that the preacher of the Richmond First Baptist Church made. "My brudders," said he, "when you was all slaves dar might ha' been sense for cuttin' a slice off de marsr's bacon, or hookin' a handful o' corn meal, or robbin' de hen roost, for you all work hard den, my brudders, and you earn it, you earn it, my brudders and sisters. But now you is all free men dar aint no 'scuse whatever; you's all on yer own 'sponsibility."

A rough but plain speaker says: "prohibition does not exist in Massachusetts—not by a jug full."

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

— Nilsson is again "indisposed" to sing in Brooklyn, and the people there are in turn getting sick of Nilsson.

— One of the men whom a band of disguised scoundrels turned out of jail at Newcastle, Delaware, has been found and arrested.

— A schoolmistress of Lowell, Me., was recently sued for flogging a sixteen year old boy, but the court decided that the boy only got what he deserved.

— A suggestion is made that should the female movement against liquor come to Washington, that the first effort be made with Downing the Congressional Restauranteur.

— An Alabama journal calls attention to the fact that the rate of taxation is only seven and a half mills on the dollar; whereas in Virginia, under Democratic rule, it is nearly three times as heavy, and adds: "No Republican had anything to do with the Virginia debt of fifty millions of dollars. It is an unmixed Democratic blessing."

— A Havana dispatch, of the 26th instant, says: The Gaceta published an order requiring house owners and heads of families to give to the authorities the names of all persons, white or black, residing on their premises, who are liable to military duty. Failure to report the names within a specified time is punishable by fine, and parties making inaccurate reports will be tried by court martial. This order has been issued because all attempts to procure accurate lists for conscription have failed.

— The recent declaration of the National Grange, driving out of the Order all who are not tillers of the soil, has created a good deal of consternation in Minnesota among a class of political dead-beats, who have thrust themselves into leading positions in their own selfish purposes. One of the impostors who will be thus excluded is described by the St. Paul Press as a Universalist preacher, a homeopathic doctor and a vender of patent rights—"all honorable occupations, but very distantly connected with agriculture."

— On the forenoon of the 26th, at Rochester, New York, a fire was started by an unknown man under the second story stairs in public school house No. 12. The flames were discovered in time to permit of their suppression before damage was done and before there was any panic. Three hundred children in the upper rooms would have been cut off from escape, except by the windows, if the flames had progressed far. No. 5 public school house was set on fire on Tuesday, but no damage was done.

— Dispatches from Florida bay state that the naval fleet practised at torpedo exploding on the 25th instant. This was done by anchoring a raft a mile ahead of the fleet, to which they sailed, and exploded torpedoes under it as they passed. Fourteen out of seventeen torpedoes were successfully exploded. The spectacle was grand, in many instances the water being thrown in a sold column twice the height of the mainmast. The shock on board the ships were heavy. All were fired by electricity. Commodore Parker states that the experiments have demonstrated the impropriety of applying to large war vessels incapable of great speed. The fleet leaves for Key West Saturday, via Tortugas.

He came home late and found his wife in a high state of nervousness. She exclaimed: "Here I've been waiting and rocking in this chair till my my head spins like a top." "Jess so where I've been," said he; "it must be something in the atmosphere."

There is something that touches the heart in the last moments of a dog that died at Lansingburg, N. Y., the other day, at the age of twenty-four years.—The old fellow had hardly stirred from his rug for some days; he rose stiffly, crawled with difficulty up stairs, visited every room in the house, seemed to bid a last farewell to all familiar objects, came back to his master's feet, and died without a struggle.

An engine driver and stoker on the Midland railway recently called at the shop of a well known temperance man and Good Templar in Derbyshire, and asked him if he could show them where Messrs. ——'s spirit vaults were situated. "Yes," replied the Good Templar, "come this way;" and taking them through his shop and house, the back of which faces the parish churchyard, he said, pointing to the graves: "There are the vaults, but the spirits are all gone."

Josh Billings has an entirely bald head. It is related of him that once when he was at the Zoological Gardens in Paris, the day being warm, he lay down upon one of the benches and went to sleep. After awhile he was awakened by a sense of suffocation, and when he opened his eyes he found that something covered his face. He began to struggle to release himself, and the next moment a gigantic ostrich leaped up and began to prance down the path. The ostrich had observed the top of Josh's bald head, and, mistaking it for one of its eggs, it had begun to sit upon it for the purpose of hatching.

— CARELESS DRIVERS ENDANGER LIFE.—The practice indulged in by some draymen of trotting around corners is not only dangerous, but is a violation of a city ordinance. Yesterday evening a gentleman was coming from Lippitt's corner to Green and Flanner's lower store, when he came very near being run over by a careless driver. So swift did the drayman turn the corner that the gentleman was struck by the horse in his endeavors to evade him. We feel assured that the Mayor will have a stop put to all such dangerous practices.

— "The dome of thought, the palace of the soul."

— WE were shown a skull to-day, lately exhumed in this city, which evoked something more than a monetary interest. It was found buried beneath two other of the remains of some of the human race, and evidently had been resting many years. On the left side of the skull was the mark of a blow which was given by a hatchet or some other sharp instrument, and which had been the cause of death. On the bone just above the socket of the right eye was a mark which had been given by an arrow or some other similar weapon. The skull exhibits strong marks of intellectual power. A striking peculiarity of the burial is that the body was placed face downward.

— ATTEMPTED RAPE.—Elijah Martin, one of the accused murderers of Willie Carter, and who was discharged from custody, having been able to prove alibi before the Magistrate's Court of investigation, was arrested Friday night about 7 o'clock, by ex policeman Shaw, on the charge of rape. It is alleged that Martin met a young colored girl about 10 years old, the daughter of one of the most respectable colored men of the city, on Anderson, between Green and Fanning streets, and essayed to outrage her person. At the time of the attempted fiendish design, the boy had in his hand a shot gun, and with it he tried to frighten the girl into an acquiescence of his purposes, but his threats were of no avail, and he tried to accomplish his designs by brute force, choking her severely and bruising other portions of her body. Her chest was lacerated by his finger nails, and the waist of her dress was torn from the skirt. Her successful resistance and incessant cries for help, foiled the boy in his attempt to outrage her. As soon as the girl reached her home she informed her parents of the affair, and the matter was at once made known at the Marshal's office. Twelve men were sent out on the search for Martin, who was reported to have left the city and gone over into Brunswick county. This proved incorrect, however, as the boy was arrested at his own home last night by officer Shaw, and is now safe in the guard house. The feeling among the friends of the little girls ran high, and it was thought that the lynch law would be put into execution. Martin will be tried before the Mayor on Monday morning.

— A bridegroom on the train, between Fayetteville and Raleigh, being frightened by the breaking of an axle, jumped out of a window, leaving his wife to her fate.

— About three weeks ago, in Asheville, a boy threw a rock at a man, which struck the latter on the forehead, and from which he died in about two weeks.

— BOARD OF ALDERMEN.—A called meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held last evening. Present, His Honor the Mayor, and Aldermen Wilson, Fishblate, Adrian, Moore, Rice, Grainger, Brewington, Hankins and Banks.

The committee on Finance, to whom was referred the application from the Cape Fear Agricultural Association for assistance, reported, recommending that the Board submit to the vote of the people on the 23d day of March, (proximo) as to whether the city shall donate to the Cape Fear Agricultural Association the sum of $4,000, in city bonds, face value, with the proviso that the Association pay the expense of said election and deposit the amount required with the Treasurer of the city.

The committee on Finance reported adversely to the proposition for purchase of hose at this time and until the first of next August, as the finances of the city will not warrant the outlay but, on motion, the Mayor was authorized by the Board to purchase eight hundred feet of the best hose for the use of the fire steamer Adrian.

Benj. Merrick and Hugh McDonald were elected to fill vacancies on the the police force.

Reports were received from the committee on Streets and Wharves, the majority recommending that the street hands do not be allowed pay for rainy days, and the minority report recommending that they do be allowed the regular pay on such days.

On motion of Alderman Moore, the whole matter was laid on the table.

The committee on Streets and Wharves recommended that the application of P. W. Canning for pay for certain property appropriated by the city in the opening of East Princess street, be not allowed. Report concurred in.

The Mayor was authorized to advertise and sell the beds and bedding now in the City Hospital, the property of city.

The Committee on Streets and Wharves reported, recommending that the Mayor be instructed to have plans and specifications made for the construction sewers between Second and Third streets, near Market, and on Dawson street, near Fourth, and to advertise for proposals for building the same, to report at next meeting of the Board. Report adopted.

R. Co., that no such subscription by the city will be made unless $20,000 shall have previously been subscribe to said stock by other bona fide and responsible subscribers, and at least five per cent of the amount so subscribed shall have been paid by each of said subscribers; and, further, that the subscription on the part of the city shall be paid and satisfied by the bonds of the city to be issued as provided in the act of the General Assembly, referred to in said ordinance, to be received by said Company at their full value, and to be issued and delivered to said Company at the same time and in the same installments as shall be required from individuals on their subscription to said stock.

"Into each life some Rain must fall."

Truly said, perhaps, and yet it seems to me
So many hearts could read the words and see
No shadow of themselves in it, all in all—
For only have they lived where sun does fall.
Where air is ever light and never presses down
The cares that crowd and crowd in thorny crown,
Upon the brows that silver shines above,
Over the heart that has no dream of love
To brighten dark, dark days with happy sighs;
Into such lives the rain does fall, and lies
In pools of tears beneath the weary feet
And shadows follow on, and come to meet
From every side—into each life some rain.
Oh! yes, but then for some it ripens grain
Of joy and happiness, it falls in golden showers,
Its every drop a joy, and fills the blessed hours
With garnered hopes, or ripened fruits of love
And over all the bow shines clear above
And scatters from its royal, radiant hues,
A benediction from the Heavenly dews.
Can such say into each? I tell you no
'Tis when the storm clouds, heavy, black and low
Gather and break, and break one upon one,
Until the season of its wrath is done,
Until it has laid waste some garden fair,
And grafted all the plants with seeds of care,
That when the next rain falls, will wake and grow
Through sun or shine, or dreariest winter's snow—
And nought shall kill the sorrow that the rain
That falls in many lives, does bring, naught stop the pain
That follows broken faith—joys swept away
In all the dreariness of rainy day,
Oh! damp and cold are many days I ween,
Thank God, it is the border land between
A past we know not and bright to come;
Into some lives, Oh! yes, but there are some
Whose fiercest storms are April showers,
Whose darkest days May's golden hours,
But into each life a day will fall,
When through the rain, and care, and all,
A voice will come to bid us throw away
This memory or that of rainy day
And come beyond where storms, and tears are never,
To come beyond forever and forever,
How little will it brook when comes the call
That into our lives the rain did fall.

PENNSYLVANIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb'y 28.

The silk weavers on a strike held a meeting yesterday afternoon. A committee of twenty-one females, who had visited Sheppard Brothers, requesting an advance of three dollars a week, stated that they had refused to comply with this demand.

The weavers state that they will not return to the looms until the wages they ask are given to them.

A prayer meeting was held in the Baptist Chapel, on Seventh street and Susquehanna Avenue, in the extreme Northern section of the city. At the opening, about two hundred ladies were present, Mrs. Dr. French, a well known female, presiding. Prior to the opening exercises the reporters were requested to withdraw, and the proceedings were conducted secretly. After a long discussion it was decided to commence a crusade against the liquor dealers at once, and for that purpose they delegated twenty of their number, who proceeded to three saloons in the vicinity, around which they sang and prayed to closed doors. At one place a side door was left open, where a number of roughs gathered, who ridiculed the proceedings so much that one of the ladies wept, and to-day was spasmodic. A majority of the people do not think that the movement will be successful in this city.

THE EVENING POST.

J. C. MANN

EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

Published every evening, except Sunday, at Five Dollars per Annum.

The POST is designed to reach all classes of citizens, and its subscription price is therefore placed so low as to be within the reach of all. It contains the

LATEST NEWS,

up to the time of going to press,

TELEGRAPHIC,
BY MAIL,
COMMERCIAL AND LOCAL.

It should be in the hands of every man who desires to know what has transpired during the day, and, as it aims to give its publisher hopes it will prove a welcome guest in many families.

RELIABLE INTELLIGENCE,

THE POST

is sprightly without being sensational, and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend the sensibilities of the most fastidious. As an

Advertising Medium

it claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man in the city.

Politically the POST is

UNSWERVINGLY REPUBLICAN.

Its editor having been a consistent member of that party since 1855, through its vicisitudes and triumphs, he claims to speak advisedly when advocating its principles. He is not, however an "extremist," and accords to others what he claims for himself, the right of free thought and of free speech.

THE ADVERTISING RATES of the POST, like its subscription price, are at liberal and at living prices, as an examination of them will show, and it bespeaks a share of public patronage.

THE EVENING POST

is closely identified with the local welfare of the Cape Fear region, and the believers in progress, whether

EDUCATIONAL,
AGRICULTURAL,
MECHANICAL, or COMMERCIAL,

will find an enthusiastic ally in THE POST.

THE POST

is opposed to monopolies, but in favor of internal improvements, and a firm believer in the patronage and support of home enterprises and institutions.

WHICH IS THE BEST!

Which is the best Sewing Machine, is a point on which different Companies differ, each, of course, thinks its own the bert, but if the point were to be decided by popularity the Howe Machine would surpass all others. It is a noticeable fact that the Howe Company has

SIX HUNDRED THOUSAND

of their Machines in use although having existed but six years, while the Company which claims to have most in use, has only about twice that number, though having existed for twenty years.

Until the year 1866, ELIAS HOWE, JR., the

ORIGINAL INVENTOR OF SEWING MACHINES,

did not manufacture, but was content with receiving the royalty which all Sewing Machine Manufacturers had to pay him for the use of his Patents. A sample of each Machine was sent to Mr. Howe before a license could be obtained. Constant study upon them enabled him to avoid the defects of each and improve upon the excellences of all. This fact explains the

WONDERFUL DEGREE OF PERFECTION

to which Mr. Howe brought his latest pattern of Machine, without which advantages such a result could not have been achieved. These facts should be borne in mind by all who intend to purchase a Sewing Machine. As the purchase of a Machine may be the act of a lifetime with some, care should be taken to PURCHASE ONLY THE LATEST AND BEST.

W. D. Goodrich,

On Market Street Near Third,

A NEW SERIES

Was begun Jan. 1, 1873, with entirely new Tales, already embracing Serial and Short Stories by distinguished English, French, German, and Russian authors; viz., Lord Lytton (Bulwer,) Erckmann-Chatrian, Ivan Turgenieff, Miss Thackeray, Mrs. Oliphant, Fritz Reuter, Mrs Parr (author of "Dorothy Fox") Julia Kavanagh, &c.

During the coming year, as heretofore, the choicest serial and short stories by the Leading Foreign Authors will be given, together will an amount unapproached by any other periodical in the world, of the best literary and scientific matter of the day, from the pens of the above-named and other foremost Essayists Scientists, Critics, Discoverers, and Editors, representing every department of knowledge and progress.

The importance of THE LIVING AGE to every American reader, as the only complete as well as fresh compilcation of a generally inaccessible but indispensable current literature,—indispensable because it embraces the productions of THE ABLEST LIVING WRITERS in all branches of Literature, Science, Art, and Politics,—is sufficiently indicated by the following

OPINIONS.

"Reproduces the best thoughts of the best minds of the civilized world, upon all topics of living interest."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

"In no other single publication can there be found so much of sterling alterary excellence,"—The Nation, New York.

"And the cheapest. A monthly that comes every week."—THE ADVANCE, CHICAGO.

"With it alone a reader may fairly keep up with all that is important in the literature, history, politics, and science of the day."—The Methodist, New York.

"In view of all the competitors in the field, I should certainly chose "The Living Age"—Rev. Henry Ward Beecher.

"The best periodical in America."—Rev. Dr. Cuyier.

"Has no equal in any country."—Phila. Press.

"Indispensable to every one who desires a thorough compendium of all that is admirable and noteworthy in the literary world."—Boston Post.
